Dear Barbara Cencur Curk,

Regarding the EGU General Assembly 2018, we are pleased to inform you that your following abstract has been accepted and scheduled as PICO presentation in session HS5.1 - Hydrology & Society: Transdisciplinary approaches to hydrology and water resources management:

EGU2018-12573

Drinking water source protection and spatial planning - how to deal with conflict of interests by Barbara Cencur Curk et al.

The oral presentation of your PICO, PICO viewing, takes place at PICO spot A on Tuesday, 10 Apr 2018, 10:40. The PICO viewing time will be Tuesday, 10 Apr 2018, 10:54-12:00 at PICO screen PICOA.6.

For details of the corresponding presentation as well as of the session programme please see: <https://meetingorganizer.copernicus.org/EGU2018/session/26607>

You are kindly requested to prepare one presentation file fulfilling both needs, the introductory PICO viewing as well as the following intensive viewing and discussions. The upload of this presentation will be on-site at the PICO upload & preview in Hall X5.

Including your abstract in the conference programme obliges you or one of your co-authors to actually present your contribution at the time and in the mode indicated. Please inform your co-author(s). If you already know that your abstract will be unable to be presented during the EGU2018, please withdraw your abstract at your earliest convenience by using your Copernicus Office user ID 81036 at:

<https://meetingorganizer.copernicus.org/EGU2018/abstractwithdrawal/>

At the conference, missing presentations are categorized as no-shows if the abstract has not been withdrawn by the time of the presentation as given in the programme. Such no-shows will be recorded and conveners will be informed after the conference. No-show authors will be asked for reasons. Without appropriate reasons, these abstracts and their PDF files will be removed from the conference website.

Detailed information on presenter guidelines, pre-registration, and hotel booking is provided on the conference webpage at: <https://egu2018.eu/>

Some useful information about the assembly:

OSPP JUDGING: When browsing through the poster and PICO programme, abstracts taking part in the OSPP contest provide the opportunity for you to volunteer as judge in order to ensure an appropriate amount of evaluations. For sessions you plan to attend, please consider serving as judge, if applicable.

MOBILE APP: The EGU2018 app for iPhones and Android smartphones will be available about two weeks prior to the conference. Please check the conference website.

PERSONAL PROGRAMME: Please make use of the option to generate your own personal programme (online or through the mobile app) to be stored and printed as PDF. Your personal programme will be synchronized between online version and mobile app.

DIVISION MEETINGS: All EGU2018 attendees are invited to attend, particularly early career scientists. Please find the division meetings at:

<https://meetingorganizer.copernicus.org/EGU2018/sessionprogramme/FAM>

EGU & FRIENDS: To learn more about EGU and its partner organizations please visit Hall X2 (Brown Level -2 - basement).

SOCIAL MEDIA and BLOG: You can stay up-to-date with General Assembly information by subscribing to the EGU blog (<https://blogs.egu.eu/geolog/>) and following the EGU on Twitter (<https://twitter.com/EuroGeosciences>, conference hashtag: #EGU18) and Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/EuropeanGeosciencesUnion>).

EGU TODAY: Daily issues of EGU Today, your guide to conference highlights, will also be distributed during the meeting. Pick up a copy on your way into the ACV, or check the latest issue online at: https://www.egu2018.eu/egu_today.html

We thank you very much for your cooperation and we are looking forward to seeing you at the EGU General Assembly 2018.

In case any questions arise, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Kind regards,
Katja Gänger
