

WEBINAR and UPPER- AUSTRIAN BASIC TRAINING

ORGANIZED BY : INSTITUTE OF WORK RESEARCH AND WORK POLICY AT JOHANNES KEPLER UNIVERSITY LINZ & BUSINESS UPPER AUSTRIA

During the basic training organization period IAA and BIZ-UP organized together the Upper-Austrian basic training. Next to this IAA organized a webinar:

In December 2018, Dr. Martin Kuhlmann, labour sociologist and senior researcher at SOFI Götting, gave a webinar on the subject of Digitalisation/Industry 4.0 in the workplace. The webinar was organised by the Institut für Arbeitsforschung und Arbeitspolitik (IAA) at the Johannes Kepler University Linz. Central topics included the connection between machines and humans, new business models that emerge through Industry 4.0 as well as the influence of digitalisation on work processes. Practitioners and representatives of public authorities and business support organisations have participated and actively engaged in the discussion with Martin Kuhlmann. through Industry 4.0 as well as the influence of digitalisation on work processes.
