

D.T1.1.5 NETWORKING & FOLLOW-UP WORKSHOP TO TRANSFER BEST PRACTICES

---

D.C. 4.2 Report

Version 1
05 2022

---

1. Name of the event, implementing date and place

Study visit Netherland has been organized by FJ to get in touch with external expertise and promote the results obtained within Transfarm.

2. Number and types of participants/target groups

RIS managers, Innovation center, Start-up, research centre managers, startup incubator

3. Topics tackled and links to deliverables, outputs

The study visit has been the opportunity to interact with stakeholders (SH) with different backgrounds: pure and applied science, economics, entrepreneurs, start uppers. According to the SH the discussion had been more oriented toward the state of art of technology or toward the business and region development.

4. Expected effects and follow up

The study visit has been an opportunity to networking with an excellence hub in precision farming innovation. Partners had the opportunity to learn about the Dutch ecosystem for innovation and collect information and contacts for future collaborations.

5. Annexes: e.g. agenda of the event, pictures, media coverage web- links etc

In the report 114 agenda and pictures of the study visit are showed